The Philadelphia is at Mare Island probably for two months.

One house is all that fire has left Forest Lake, San Joaquin County.

Cattle killed by hail. Destructive storm sweeps over Southwestern Iowa.

The Cornell crew is expected to win the Thames races easily by 2 or 3 lengths.

Mrs. Cleveland has had another little baby girl. It is likely to be named Naomi.

Bridgeport under water. Swollen streams overflow and inundate the Kansas town.

Seventy persons injured by a bridge disaster at Bristol, Indiana. Many will die.

The Russo-Chinese loan has been successfully floated with a lien on the maritime customs.

In the coming English elections the conservative majority is estimated to become 40 or over.

Miss Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw have left San Francisco for their homes in the East.

A terminus in San Francisco for the valley road has been secured by the lease of the China Basin.

Spanish troops in Cuba have defeated a rebel ambush with an immense loss to their assailants.

The U. S. Government have decided to take an appeal in the Stanford case to the Supreme Court.

Fire causes the loss of over a quarter million dollars at the Pacific Lumber Co.'s plant, Scotia, Cal.

Professor Ramsey has tested chippings of meteorites and found argon and helium in all of them.

There is much squabbling over socialism in Germany. Von Gerlach has lost his seat as member of the Reichstag.

A tornado struck Baxter Springs, Kansas, July 5, and laid it ruins. Five people were killed and twenty wounded.

Ex Governor Stevenson of Idaho committed suicide at Paraiso by taking laudanum. He was crazed by illness.

Chas. Warren Stoddard, the poet of the South Seas, well and favorably known here is now on a visit to San Francisco.

The Storting in Norway has decided to pay the outlay for the diplomatic and consular service by large majorities.

There has been appalling destruction by wind and rain in Missouri. Bodies of 12 victims have already been recovered at Winona.

Plots against the life of the Sultan have been discovered in Constantinople and a reactionary policy is expected against foreigners.

The number of near relations in the new administration is interesting. They include father and son, Mr. Chamberlain and Austin Chamberlain; a father-in-law and son-in-law, Lord Salisbury and Lord Salisbury; two brothers, Arthur and Gerard Balfour; an uncle and two nephews, Lord Salisbury and the Messrs. Balfour; and two brother-in-laws, Lord George Hamilton and Lord Lansdowne.

Politics in the United States seem to be in a ferment. Cleveland is said to be working for a third term. Ex-Attorney General Garland says there will be seven Presidential tickets in the field next year: Democratic, Republican, Lometalic, Single Gold Standard, Populist, Prohibition and Women's Rights. Henry Watterson announces his belief in the coalition of the conservatives of all parties into a union in support of good government and sound money.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.
